Inspiring story of the month

Arina, Yaroslav, Danylo, Ruslan, Maria, Anastasia, Oleksandr, Mykhailo and Victoria

Before the war, their large family lived in the Luhansk region. Mom, dad and 12 children, 10 of whom are adopted, were brought up in love and were always surrounded by warmth. But with the beginning of a full-scale war, the family found itself on the front line. My 12-year-old son Mykhailo was injured during another shelling. The mother and her children were evacuated. However, father and old grandfather remained in the house. And already on March 30, more than 15 shells hit their house. The father of the family died tragically while trying to put out the fire. Thus, 9 minor children were left without parental love and without a native home - the family has to start life from the beginning. However, faith in a bright future and support for each other help to cope in these difficult moments. From the fund, the family received winter shoes and clothes, a generator, an accumulator, a trip to the camp, stationery, a first-aid kit, 2 laptops and food kits.

Programs of support

The biggest support program now is Family Helpers - they are our direct and constant connection with families, they are the ones who track contacts with children and maximize our help to families.

The second largest program is Humanitarian support - providing humanitarian assistance to families.

- Family helpers
- Emergency support
- Humanitarian support
- Education and development
- Psychological support and rehabilitation
- Healthcare
- Holiday gifts and celebrations
- Other support

Over the course of a year, we scaled up and became the largest fund in Ukraine with such mission. There are more than 7400 children under our support as of today.

Feedback from our families

Feedback from our families

A person is seen from behind, holding a young child up in the air with both hands. The child's arms are also raised, and they are holding hands with the person. They are standing in a field at sunset, with the sun low on the horizon, creating a warm, golden glow. The person is wearing a blue long-sleeved shirt, and the child is wearing a colorful patterned dress with a red bow at the back. The background shows a flat landscape under a hazy sky.

Our overall goal is to support each child who has lost one or both parents due to the war in Ukraine
