Top 50 charitable funds of Ukraine

CF "Children of Heroes" took 29th place in terms of the amount of aid provided in the rating of the top 50 charitable funds of Ukraine according to Forbes Ukraine magazine.

This recognition inspires us to keep moving forward, supporting every child who has lost a parent to war. Since our inception, we have done everything we can to provide comprehensive and long-term support and work personally with each child to help them through the most difficult moments of life.

Thanks to our partners and benefactors, this year we collected UAH 177.5 million and helped 9,965 children. However, the number of children in need is growing every day and we need even more resources to provide quality support.

Thank you for your trust, support and faith in us. Each of your contributions is a step towards a better future for our children.

Inspiring story of the month

Bohdan, 10 years old

Bohdan, a 10-year-old boy from Bakhmut, experienced a great tragedy when his pregnant mother and stepfather were killed in shelling in October 2022. After losing his parents, Bohdan, trying to get home, ended up in a dangerous area of the city, from where he was evacuated by the police at great risk.

After that, he temporarily lived in the Kyiv region, and later he was taken under the care of the Loktion family. Today Bohdan lives in Kyiv with guardians. Olena is a music director in a kindergarten, and Andriy is an orthopedic traumatologist, but plans to change jobs in order to devote more time to Bohdan.

The family has already received a grocery set and a stationery set for the start of the school year, and appealed to a psychologist for this autumn to support Bohdan. Thanks to the support of the "Children of Heroes" Fund, Bohdan has already visited the "Syniohora" and "X-Park" camps, which helped him relax and get positive emotions.
